

DODIS

PINOT GRIGIO

D.O.C. FRIULI COLLI ORIENTALI

Pinot Grigio is a vine of French origin that has been known since Roman times. At the beginning of the 19th century, it spread to Piedmont and then to the rest of northern Italy, finding particularly suitable environmental conditions in Friuli, which favoured its wide diffusion and which highlight its best organoleptic characteristics.

GRAPE VARIETY

Pinot Grigio

PRODUCTION AREA

Eastern Friuli, Italy

SOIL

Marl and sandstone

HARVEST

At the correct degree of ripeness

VINIFICATION

White wine vinification

TASTING NOTES

White wine Straw-yellow colour with light amber hues. Intense and fruity bouquet, reminiscent of acacia flowers and bread crust. On the palate it is soft, full and harmonious

FOOD PAIRING

Ideal as aperitif or with cured ham, finger food, fish and white meat

SERVING TEMPERATURE

8°-10° C

format 750 ml

DODIS